

Week of
November 17, 2014

News From Ms. Shaw's Class

1-2

The Week In Review

Language Arts

Trick Words: what, where, there, like

Foundations: Letter/Sound identification and relationships, letter writing, tap to read, base word and suffix -s

Read Aloud Books: This week we read, The Relatives Came and Family.

Schoolwide Stories: We also read, The Three Little Dassies, Poppleton, and Whoever You Are.

Reading Skills:

- Author Study
- Identifying characteristics of Traditional Tales
- Read, Retell & Remember
- Compare and Contrast
- Identifying Character Traits

Writing: Your children are learning ways to communicate their feelings from our author study of Mem Fox. We are using her stories as mentor texts for us to grow as writers.

Please consider making a contribution to our Pajama Drive.

Morning Meeting

- Calendar
- Weather Graph
- Days of the Week
- Months of the Year
- Counting to 100
- School Days/Number line

Math

- Think addition to 12 to subtract
- Problem solve: draw a picture and write a number sentence

Science

- Changing States of Matter

Social Studies

- Family & Traditions
 - Family recipe due 12/8.

Health

- Keeping Myself Healthy

Reminders

*NEW Scholastic Reading Club orders are due online on Monday. Please enter class code: GYYMF

*Windows of the World Project is due next week.

*Please read with your child and practice trick words with flash cards each night.

*Please sign up to receive notifications on our website and through Remind.

*Please return your child's Friday Folder on Monday.

*Please send in a package of 3x5 index cards.

Upcoming Events

November 10th-December 5th: Pajama Drive

November 25th: Thanksgiving Feast/Pajama & Favorite Book Day

November 26th-28th: Thanksgiving Recess (No School)