

32-Federal Court System

1. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?
2. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
3. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
4. This is the term for the court that has the initial authority to hear a case?
5. This term means that only one court system has authority to hear the case?

Review

1. This is the term for all the people who work for the government?
2. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.
3. This was the system of giving government jobs to friends or supporters?
4. This is the system of giving government positions to those who are well qualified for those positions by administering job-specific tests.
5. This is an action taken by a legislative committee that places a bill to the side without a vote?
6. This is the right of a Senator to hold the Senate floor for an unlimited amount of time—usually threatened as a form of killing or revising a bill the Senator opposes.
7. A special vote taken by the Senate that would require a Senator to give up the floor during a filibuster---requires a 2/3 vote---very difficult to achieve.
8. This is the process where the President does not sign a bill and Congress has adjourned and after ten days the bills dies rather than becoming law.
9. This is the ability of Congress to pass a bill after the President has vetoed it---but only if they can pass it again with a 2/3 majority.
10. What branch includes the President and VP?
11. This is the process of electing the President where each state is assigned a number of electors equal to its representation in Congress?
12. How many terms can they serve?
13. Who is third in line to be President?
14. This is a term referring to the large number of people who work for the government?
15. Who must approve all treaties and appointments made by the President?

Extra Credit

1. This is the term used when describing the President as leader of our military forces?
2. Name the speech given by the President each year to describe the situation of the nation?
3. This commission controls the nation's banking system?

32-Federal Court System

1. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?
2. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
3. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
4. This is the term for the court that has the initial authority to hear a case?
5. This term means that only one court system has authority to hear the case?

Review

1. This is the term for all the people who work for the government?
2. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.
3. This was the system of giving government jobs to friends or supporters?
4. This is the system of giving government positions to those who are well qualified for those positions by administering job-specific tests.
5. This is an action taken by a legislative committee that places a bill to the side without a vote?
6. This is the right of a Senator to hold the Senate floor for an unlimited amount of time—usually threatened as a form of killing or revising a bill the Senator opposes.
7. A special vote taken by the Senate that would require a Senator to give up the floor during a filibuster---requires a 2/3 vote---very difficult to achieve.
8. This is the process where the President does not sign a bill and Congress has adjourned and after ten days the bills dies rather than becoming law.
9. This is the ability of Congress to pass a bill after the President has vetoed it---but only if they can pass it again with a 2/3 majority.
10. What branch includes the President and VP?
11. This is the process of electing the President where each state is assigned a number of electors equal to its representation in Congress?
12. How many terms can they serve?
13. Who is third in line to be President?
14. This is a term referring to the large number of people who work for the government?
15. Who must approve all treaties and appointments made by the President?

Extra Credit

1. This is the term used when describing the President as leader of our military forces?
2. Name the speech given by the President each year to describe the situation of the nation?
3. This commission controls the nation's banking system?

32-Federal Court System

1. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?
2. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
3. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
4. This is the term for the court that has the initial authority to hear a case?
5. This term means that only one court system has authority to hear the case?

Review

1. This is the term for all the people who work for the government?
2. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.
3. This was the system of giving government jobs to friends or supporters?
4. This is the system of giving government positions to those who are well qualified for those positions by administering job-specific tests.
5. This is an action taken by a legislative committee that places a bill to the side without a vote?
6. This is the right of a Senator to hold the Senate floor for an unlimited amount of time—usually threatened as a form of killing or revising a bill the Senator opposes.
7. A special vote taken by the Senate that would require a Senator to give up the floor during a filibuster---requires a 2/3 vote---very difficult to achieve.
8. This is the process where the President does not sign a bill and Congress has adjourned and after ten days the bills dies rather than becoming law.
9. This is the ability of Congress to pass a bill after the President has vetoed it---but only if they can pass it again with a 2/3 majority.
10. What branch includes the President and VP?
11. This is the process of electing the President where each state is assigned a number of electors equal to its representation in Congress?
12. How many terms can they serve?
13. Who is third in line to be President?
14. This is a term referring to the large number of people who work for the government?
15. Who must approve all treaties and appointments made by the President?

Extra Credit

1. This is the term used when describing the President as leader of our military forces?
2. Name the speech given by the President each year to describe the situation of the nation?
3. This commission controls the nation's banking system?

33-Lower Federal Courts

1. This is the lowest level of federal court?
2. How does this lowest level determine guilt or innocence?
3. This Federal Court hears cases on first appeal?
4. What is the job of this secondary court?
5. How are Federal judges chosen?
6. How long is the term of a federal judge?
7. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
8. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
9. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?

Review

1. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?
2. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
3. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
4. This is the term for the court that has the initial authority to hear a case?
5. This term means that only one court system has authority to hear the case?
6. Name the system of giving government jobs to one's friends and supporters?
7. This is the process where famous or influential people give their support to someone who is seeking office?
8. Name the Presidential power to forgive someone for a crime that was committed.
9. Name the Presidential power to give a pardon to a large group of people.
10. This is the term most often used for the people who work closely with the President and his staff?
11. This is the person who works closest to the President and serves as the main advisor to the President?

Extra Credit

1. Name the person who works closely with the media on behalf of the President?
2. How many different departments are within the Executive Branch?
3. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.

33-Lower Federal Courts

1. This is the lowest level of federal court?
2. How does this lowest level determine guilt or innocence?
3. This Federal Court hears cases on first appeal?
4. What is the job of this secondary court?
5. How are Federal judges chosen?
6. How long is the term of a federal judge?
7. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
8. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
9. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?

Review

1. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?
2. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
3. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
4. This is the term for the court that has the initial authority to hear a case?
5. This term means that only one court system has authority to hear the case?
6. Name the system of giving government jobs to one's friends and supporters?
7. This is the process where famous or influential people give their support to someone who is seeking office?
8. Name the Presidential power to forgive someone for a crime that was committed.
9. Name the Presidential power to give a pardon to a large group of people.
10. This is the term most often used for the people who work closely with the President and his staff?
11. This is the person who works closest to the President and serves as the main advisor to the President?

Extra Credit

1. Name the person who works closely with the media on behalf of the President?
2. How many different departments are within the Executive Branch?
3. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.

33-Lower Federal Courts

1. This is the lowest level of federal court?
2. How does this lowest level determine guilt or innocence?
3. This Federal Court hears cases on first appeal?
4. What is the job of this secondary court?
5. How are Federal judges chosen?
6. How long is the term of a federal judge?
7. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
8. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
9. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?

Review

1. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?
2. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
3. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
4. This is the term for the court that has the initial authority to hear a case?
5. This term means that only one court system has authority to hear the case?
6. Name the system of giving government jobs to one's friends and supporters?
7. This is the process where famous or influential people give their support to someone who is seeking office?
8. Name the Presidential power to forgive someone for a crime that was committed.
9. Name the Presidential power to give a pardon to a large group of people.
10. This is the term most often used for the people who work closely with the President and his staff?
11. This is the person who works closest to the President and serves as the main advisor to the President?

Extra Credit

1. Name the person who works closely with the media on behalf of the President?
2. How many different departments are within the Executive Branch?
3. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.

34-U.S. Supreme Court

1. The Supreme Court uses only this type of jurisdiction?
2. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
3. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
4. Who is the leader of the Court?
5. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
6. How long is their term?
7. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
8. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
9. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.

Review

1. This is the lowest level of federal court?
2. How does this lowest level determine guilt or innocence?
3. This Federal Court hears cases on first appeal?
4. What is the job of this secondary court?
5. How are Federal judges chosen?
6. How long is the term of a federal judge?
7. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
8. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
9. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?
10. Name the group which is composed of all the department's leaders?
11. This Executive department deals with foreign policy?

Extra Credit

1. Name the government agency that is responsible for collecting taxes?
2. This is a group made up of the highest ranking officers in each of the military branches who advise the President on military matters?
3. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?

34-U.S. Supreme Court

1. The Supreme Court uses only this type of jurisdiction?
2. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
3. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
4. Who is the leader of the Court?
5. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
6. How long is their term?
7. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
8. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
9. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.

Review

1. This is the lowest level of federal court?
2. How does this lowest level determine guilt or innocence?
3. This Federal Court hears cases on first appeal?
4. What is the job of this secondary court?
5. How are Federal judges chosen?
6. How long is the term of a federal judge?
7. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
8. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
9. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?
10. Name the group which is composed of all the department's leaders?
11. This Executive department deals with foreign policy?

Extra Credit

1. Name the government agency that is responsible for collecting taxes?
2. This is a group made up of the highest ranking officers in each of the military branches who advise the President on military matters?
3. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?

34-U.S. Supreme Court

1. The Supreme Court uses only this type of jurisdiction?
2. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
3. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
4. Who is the leader of the Court?
5. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
6. How long is their term?
7. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
8. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
9. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.

Review

1. This is the lowest level of federal court?
2. How does this lowest level determine guilt or innocence?
3. This Federal Court hears cases on first appeal?
4. What is the job of this secondary court?
5. How are Federal judges chosen?
6. How long is the term of a federal judge?
7. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
8. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
9. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?
10. Name the group which is composed of all the department's leaders?
11. This Executive department deals with foreign policy?

Extra Credit

1. Name the government agency that is responsible for collecting taxes?
2. This is a group made up of the highest ranking officers in each of the military branches who advise the President on military matters?
3. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?

35-Supreme Court Cases

1. Name the famous case that established Judicial Review
2. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal across the nation.
3. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.
4. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
5. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
6. Famous case which set exclusionary rules to the use of evidence found in police searches.
7. Case which established the mandate of "one person, one vote" which forced states to have districts of equal population.

Review

1. The Supreme Court uses only this type of jurisdiction?
2. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
3. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
4. Who is the leader of the Court?
5. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
6. How long is their term?
7. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
8. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
9. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.
10. What does USDA stand for?
11. This is a legal process for registering an invention so others can not copy it?
12. Which part of the Labor Department protects the safety of workers on the job?
13. These parts of Health and Human Services provide medical care to the elderly and the poor?

Extra Credit

1. What group coordinates the government's response to natural disasters?
2. This agency inspects visitors and goods as they enter the nation?
3. How are Federal judges chosen?

35-Supreme Court Cases

1. Name the famous case that established Judicial Review
2. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal across the nation.
3. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.
4. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
5. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
6. Famous case which set exclusionary rules to the use of evidence found in police searches.
7. Case which established the mandate of "one person, one vote" which forced states to have districts of equal population.

Review

1. The Supreme Court uses only this type of jurisdiction?
2. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
3. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
4. Who is the leader of the Court?
5. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
6. How long is their term?
7. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
8. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
9. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.
10. What does USDA stand for?
11. This is a legal process for registering an invention so others can not copy it?
12. Which part of the Labor Department protects the safety of workers on the job?
13. These parts of Health and Human Services provide medical care to the elderly and the poor?

Extra Credit

1. What group coordinates the government's response to natural disasters?
2. This agency inspects visitors and goods as they enter the nation?
3. How are Federal judges chosen?

35-Supreme Court Cases

1. Name the famous case that established Judicial Review
2. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal across the nation.
3. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.
4. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
5. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
6. Famous case which set exclusionary rules to the use of evidence found in police searches.
7. Case which established the mandate of "one person, one vote" which forced states to have districts of equal population.

Review

1. The Supreme Court uses only this type of jurisdiction?
2. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
3. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
4. Who is the leader of the Court?
5. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
6. How long is their term?
7. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
8. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
9. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.
10. What does USDA stand for?
11. This is a legal process for registering an invention so others can not copy it?
12. Which part of the Labor Department protects the safety of workers on the job?
13. These parts of Health and Human Services provide medical care to the elderly and the poor?

Extra Credit

1. What group coordinates the government's response to natural disasters?
2. This agency inspects visitors and goods as they enter the nation?
3. How are Federal judges chosen?

36-Supreme Court Cases

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.
4. Supreme Court case that established the limits of school personnel to search students while at school.
5. Case which challenged affirmative action laws and mandated that quotas can not be used.
6. Case which determined that flag burning was protected as free speech.

Review

1. Name the famous case that established Judicial Review
2. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal across the nation.
3. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.
4. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
5. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
6. Famous case which set exclusionary rules to the use of evidence found in police searches.
7. Case which established the mandate of "one person, one vote" which forced states to have districts of equal population.
8. This independent agency that oversees the pension program for the elderly and the disabled.
9. This executive agency that works to collect information about foreign nations.
10. This executive agency works to protect the environment?
11. This commission controls the nation's banking system?
12. This commission controls the activities of the media?
13. This is the term for all the people who work for the government?
14. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.

Extra Credit

1. This was the system of giving government jobs to friends or supporters?
2. This is the system of giving government positions to those who are well qualified for those positions by administering job-specific tests.
3. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.

36-Supreme Court Cases

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.
4. Supreme Court case that established the limits of school personnel to search students while at school.
5. Case which challenged affirmative action laws and mandated that quotas can not be used.
6. Case which determined that flag burning was protected as free speech.

Review

1. Name the famous case that established Judicial Review
2. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal across the nation.
3. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.
4. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
5. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
6. Famous case which set exclusionary rules to the use of evidence found in police searches.
7. Case which established the mandate of "one person, one vote" which forced states to have districts of equal population.
8. This independent agency that oversees the pension program for the elderly and the disabled.
9. This executive agency that works to collect information about foreign nations.
10. This executive agency works to protect the environment?
11. This commission controls the nation's banking system?
12. This commission controls the activities of the media?
13. This is the term for all the people who work for the government?
14. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.

Extra Credit

1. This was the system of giving government jobs to friends or supporters?
2. This is the system of giving government positions to those who are well qualified for those positions by administering job-specific tests.
3. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.

36-Supreme Court Cases

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.
4. Supreme Court case that established the limits of school personnel to search students while at school.
5. Case which challenged affirmative action laws and mandated that quotas can not be used.
6. Case which determined that flag burning was protected as free speech.

Review

1. Name the famous case that established Judicial Review
2. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal across the nation.
3. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.
4. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
5. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
6. Famous case which set exclusionary rules to the use of evidence found in police searches.
7. Case which established the mandate of "one person, one vote" which forced states to have districts of equal population.
8. This independent agency that oversees the pension program for the elderly and the disabled.
9. This executive agency that works to collect information about foreign nations.
10. This executive agency works to protect the environment?
11. This commission controls the nation's banking system?
12. This commission controls the activities of the media?
13. This is the term for all the people who work for the government?
14. This term refers to the sometimes unnecessary paperwork that is required by the government in order to insure due process.

Extra Credit

1. This was the system of giving government jobs to friends or supporters?
2. This is the system of giving government positions to those who are well qualified for those positions by administering job-specific tests.
3. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.