

37-Political Parties

1. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
2. System where more than two parties compete for control?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
4. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
5. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
6. Name the major parties in America?
7. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?

Review

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.
4. Supreme Court case that established the limits of school personnel to search students while at school.
5. Case which challenged affirmative action laws and mandated that quotas can not be used.
6. Case which determined that flag burning was protected as free speech.
7. This agency is responsible for investigating the causes of disease?
8. This agency makes sure that additives to our food and the medicines we take are safe?
9. What does HUD stand for?
10. This newest department oversees the security of Americans in the aftermath of the 9-11 terrorist attacks?
11. This agency protects the President, VP, and other important officials?
12. What is the role of TSA?
13. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?

Extra Credit

1. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
2. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
3. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.

37-Political Parties

1. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
2. System where more than two parties compete for control?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
4. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
5. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
6. Name the major parties in America?
7. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?

Review

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.
4. Supreme Court case that established the limits of school personnel to search students while at school.
5. Case which challenged affirmative action laws and mandated that quotas can not be used.
6. Case which determined that flag burning was protected as free speech.
7. This agency is responsible for investigating the causes of disease?
8. This agency makes sure that additives to our food and the medicines we take are safe?
9. What does HUD stand for?
10. This newest department oversees the security of Americans in the aftermath of the 9-11 terrorist attacks?
11. This agency protects the President, VP, and other important officials?
12. What is the role of TSA?
13. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?

Extra Credit

1. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
2. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
3. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.

37-Political Parties

1. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
2. System where more than two parties compete for control?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
4. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
5. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
6. Name the major parties in America?
7. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?

Review

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.
4. Supreme Court case that established the limits of school personnel to search students while at school.
5. Case which challenged affirmative action laws and mandated that quotas can not be used.
6. Case which determined that flag burning was protected as free speech.
7. This agency is responsible for investigating the causes of disease?
8. This agency makes sure that additives to our food and the medicines we take are safe?
9. What does HUD stand for?
10. This newest department oversees the security of Americans in the aftermath of the 9-11 terrorist attacks?
11. This agency protects the President, VP, and other important officials?
12. What is the role of TSA?
13. Name the two separate court systems that exist in the US?

Extra Credit

1. Name the two types of cases that are tried in those courts?
2. This is the term meaning the authority to hear and decide an issue.
3. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.

38-Parties in the US

1. Name one of our first two parties?
2. Name one of our first two parties?
3. Which party formed around the time of the Civil War?
4. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?
5. This is the term for the much smaller parties that do exist in America?

Review

1. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
2. System where more than two parties compete for control?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
4. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
5. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
6. Name the major parties in America?
7. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?
8. This is the lowest level of federal court?
9. How are Federal judges chosen?
10. How long is the term of a federal judge?
11. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
12. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
13. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?
14. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
15. Who is the leader of the Court?

Extra Credit

1. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
2. How long is their term?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.

38-Parties in the US

1. Name one of our first two parties?
2. Name one of our first two parties?
3. Which party formed around the time of the Civil War?
4. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?
5. This is the term for the much smaller parties that do exist in America?

Review

1. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
2. System where more than two parties compete for control?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
4. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
5. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
6. Name the major parties in America?
7. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?
8. This is the lowest level of federal court?
9. How are Federal judges chosen?
10. How long is the term of a federal judge?
11. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
12. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
13. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?
14. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
15. Who is the leader of the Court?

Extra Credit

1. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
2. How long is their term?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.

38-Parties in the US

1. Name one of our first two parties?
2. Name one of our first two parties?
3. Which party formed around the time of the Civil War?
4. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?
5. This is the term for the much smaller parties that do exist in America?

Review

1. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
2. System where more than two parties compete for control?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
4. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
5. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
6. Name the major parties in America?
7. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?
8. This is the lowest level of federal court?
9. How are Federal judges chosen?
10. How long is the term of a federal judge?
11. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court that means the verdict in the original trial was fairly reached?
12. This term is for a ruling given by an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the original verdict is placed aside and the case is thrown out?
13. This term is for a ruling in an Appeals or Supreme Court case that means the case was unfairly reached and a new trial is ordered in a lower court?
14. How many judges are on the Supreme Court?
15. Who is the leader of the Court?

Extra Credit

1. How are Supreme Court Justices chosen?
2. How long is their term?
3. Case which tested free speech and established that non-violent, non-disruptive protest is protected speech.

39-Party Organization

1. What are the requirements to be a party member?
2. What is the most important job a party member can do?
3. This term describes a person who favors less government or a government that is less involved in people's lives and is less open to reforming ideas?
4. This term describes people who are in favor of more government involvement and may be more open to reform?
5. Term that describes a person who is somewhere in-between the major political parties and may have some beliefs which favor one side and other beliefs that favor the other party?
6. This is a term for a district or area within the party organization?
7. This term describes a public document that explains what the party believes?
8. This term refers to what the party's policy is on a single issue.
9. This is a meeting held every four years when Presidential candidates are chosen and the party develops official policy beliefs.

Review

1. Name one of our first two parties?
2. Name one of our first two parties?
3. Which party formed around the time of the Civil War?
4. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?
5. This is the term for the much smaller parties that do exist in America?
6. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
7. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
8. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
9. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
10. Name the major parties in America?
11. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?

Extra Credit

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?

39-Party Organization

1. What are the requirements to be a party member?
2. What is the most important job a party member can do?
3. This term describes a person who favors less government or a government that is less involved in people's lives and is less open to reforming ideas?
4. This term describes people who are in favor of more government involvement and may be more open to reform?
5. Term that describes a person who is somewhere in-between the major political parties and may have some beliefs which favor one side and other beliefs that favor the other party?
6. This is a term for a district or area within the party organization?
7. This term describes a public document that explains what the party believes?
8. This term refers to what the party's policy is on a single issue.
9. This is a meeting held every four years when Presidential candidates are chosen and the party develops official policy beliefs.

Review

1. Name one of our first two parties?
2. Name one of our first two parties?
3. Which party formed around the time of the Civil War?
4. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?
5. This is the term for the much smaller parties that do exist in America?
6. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
7. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
8. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
9. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
10. Name the major parties in America?
11. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?

Extra Credit

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?

39-Party Organization

1. What are the requirements to be a party member?
2. What is the most important job a party member can do?
3. This term describes a person who favors less government or a government that is less involved in people's lives and is less open to reforming ideas?
4. This term describes people who are in favor of more government involvement and may be more open to reform?
5. Term that describes a person who is somewhere in-between the major political parties and may have some beliefs which favor one side and other beliefs that favor the other party?
6. This is a term for a district or area within the party organization?
7. This term describes a public document that explains what the party believes?
8. This term refers to what the party's policy is on a single issue.
9. This is a meeting held every four years when Presidential candidates are chosen and the party develops official policy beliefs.

Review

1. Name one of our first two parties?
2. Name one of our first two parties?
3. Which party formed around the time of the Civil War?
4. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?
5. This is the term for the much smaller parties that do exist in America?
6. This is a group of people with similar beliefs about government?
7. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?
8. Type of party system where there is no opposition?
9. Type of party system that we have in the U.S.?
10. Name the major parties in America?
11. Who warned the nation about the dangers of political parties?

Extra Credit

1. Case which established the policy of reading a list of certain rights to accused criminals upon their arrest.
2. Case which established abortion as legal?
3. Term that describes when two or more parties join together in order to make a majority?

40-Today's Parties

1. Name one way in which parties help keep citizens informed?
2. Name one way in which parties help keep citizens informed?
3. This term describes a movement that is begun by common people?
4. These are elections are do not allow the use of political parties---usually for position that are seen as non-political such as school boards?
5. Name one reason why parties are weaker today than in the past?

Review

1. What are the requirements to be a party member?
2. What is the most important job a party member can do?
3. This term describes a person who favors less government or a government that is less involved in people's lives and is less open to reforming ideas?
4. This term describes people who are in favor of more government involvement and may be more open to reform?
5. Term that describes a person who is somewhere in-between the major political parties and may have some beliefs which favor one side and other beliefs that favor the other party?
6. This is a term for a district or area within the party?
7. This term describes a public document that explains what the party believes?
8. This term refers to what the party's policy is on a single issue.
9. This is a meeting held every four years when Presidential candidates are chosen and the party develops official policy beliefs.
10. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
11. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
12. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
13. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.
14. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal?
15. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.

Extra Credit

1. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
2. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
3. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?

40-Today's Parties

1. Name one way in which parties help keep citizens informed?
2. Name one way in which parties help keep citizens informed?
3. This term describes a movement that is begun by common people?
4. These are elections are do not allow the use of political parties---usually for position that are seen as non-political such as school boards?
5. Name one reason why parties are weaker today than in the past?

Review

1. What are the requirements to be a party member?
2. What is the most important job a party member can do?
3. This term describes a person who favors less government or a government that is less involved in people's lives and is less open to reforming ideas?
4. This term describes people who are in favor of more government involvement and may be more open to reform?
5. Term that describes a person who is somewhere in-between the major political parties and may have some beliefs which favor one side and other beliefs that favor the other party?
6. This is a term for a district or area within the party?
7. This term describes a public document that explains what the party believes?
8. This term refers to what the party's policy is on a single issue.
9. This is a meeting held every four years when Presidential candidates are chosen and the party develops official policy beliefs.
10. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
11. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
12. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
13. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.
14. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal?
15. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.

Extra Credit

1. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
2. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
3. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?

40-Today's Parties

1. Name one way in which parties help keep citizens informed?
2. Name one way in which parties help keep citizens informed?
3. This term describes a movement that is begun by common people?
4. These are elections are do not allow the use of political parties---usually for position that are seen as non-political such as school boards?
5. Name one reason why parties are weaker today than the past?

Review

1. What are the requirements to be a party member?
2. What is the most important job a party member can do?
3. This term describes a person who favors less government or a government that is less involved in people's lives and is less open to reforming ideas?
4. This term describes people who are in favor of more government involvement and may be more open to reform?
5. Term that describes a person who is somewhere in-between the major political parties and may have some beliefs which favor one side and other beliefs that favor the other party?
6. This is a term for a district or area within the party?
7. This term describes a public document that explains what the party believes?
8. This term refers to what the party's policy is on a single issue.
9. This is a meeting held every four years when Presidential candidates are chosen and the party develops official policy beliefs.
10. This is the power of the Supreme Court to examine a law and determine its constitutionality.
11. This is the term for the written decision of the justices on the winning side on a Supreme Court decision.
12. Name the term that for the written opinion of a justice(s) who agrees with the majority but may have slightly different reasons.
13. This is the term for the written opinion of a justice(s) who disagreed with the majority in a court decision.
14. Famous Case declared segregation to be legal?
15. Case that established the precedent of "clear and present danger" when determining what is free speech.

Extra Credit

1. Famous case that declared segregation to be illegal in the public setting.
2. Case which was used to expand the right to an attorney to all felony cases.
3. This is a term for a party that dominates an area with very little opposition?