

Miss Smith's Blogging Guidelines

1. Use the one word subject heading assigned in class as your heading
2. Write all work in your blog; copy and paste it to a Word document to proofread and edit. Make changes to your blog entry.
3. All blog entries must be a well-developed paragraph:
 - At least six sentences
 - A topic sentence
 - Supporting details/opinions/examples
 - Concluding sentence
4. Blogs must be thoughtful, appropriate and well-written

MAKE SURE YOU PUBLISH YOUR BLOG!

Grading:

All blog entries are worth ten points. At the end of the quarter, total points awarded on all blogs will be divided by the total possible blog points for that quarter. This percentage grade will be counted as a test grade for the quarter.

Blogs are graded on:

- content and quality of response
- directions followed
- grammar and mechanics (sentence structure, spelling, capitalization, punctuation, proper grammar)
- completed on time (one point will be subtracted per day after the due date)
